

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

2ND JULY AND 3RD JULY 2022—Year C

We acknowledge the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We walk on a land once occupied by the Gadigal People of the Eora Nation, who lived in this area for over 30,000 years. May we continue to love and respect the land as they have.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are respectfully advised that this publication/production may contain the words, voices, names, images and /or descriptions of people who have passed away.

Reflection

INSTRUMENTS OF THE LORD

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
 Where there is injury, pardon.
 Where there is doubt, faith.
 Where there is darkness, light.
 Where there is sadness, joy.
 O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much
 See to be consoled, as to console;
 To be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love.
 For it is in giving that we receive;
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
 It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

NAIDOC WEEK Sunday July 3 – Sunday July 10 Get Up! Stand Up! Show Up!

NAIDOC Week is celebrated by all Australians. It's a great opportunity to learn more about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

This year, we are all encouraged to Get Up, Stand Up and Show Up for systematic change and show support for our First Nations peoples by seeking proper environmental and heritage protections, Constitutional change, a comprehensive process of truth telling, working towards treaties, and by calling out racism.

The relationship between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and non-Indigenous Australians needs to be based on justice, equity, and the proper recognition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' rights. We must do it together!

Parish Dinner

Thanks to everyone for your fantastic support for the dinner last Saturday evening. Nearly 90 parishioners were able to attend. What a great night it was! Thank you for your generous donations to House of Welcome. We will let you know the total raised as soon as we hear from HOW. Thank you to all our helpers on the night and in the lead up to the event.

A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with crimes are the police. If you, or anyone you know, have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

GOSPEL TODAY

Getting ready

Imagine you are going on a long walking journey. Circle the things you might pack. Add your own ideas.

Jesus told his disciples not to take anything at all! They had to completely trust God.

Jesus sends his followers out to tell everyone how much God loves them. The disciples go in twos. They do not take a bag, purse or sandals. The disciples trust God to look after them. They bring a blessing of peace to every home they visit. The disciples come back full of joy – faith in Jesus changes lives!

Tangled trails

Who went where? Find out which pair of disciples went to each town, and colour them to match.

I can spread love and peace

Do you want to be like Jesus? Then spread his message of love and peace to everyone you know. Put smiles on the faces of all these people who have heard the Good News.

Draw some of your friends and family here too!

A PRAYER TO SAY

Jesus, help me to be a missionary. Help me to tell everyone all about you. Help me to show them what you are like by being kind and loving. Amen.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday 3rd July 2022
Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday

Celebrant My sisters and brothers, as we begin the Second Assembly of the Plenary Council, and mark this National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, we place before God the needs of the Church and world, seeking the peace of Christ for every home and community and nation.

For Pope Francis, Bishop of Rome and Pope of the Universal Church, that he will be serene in heart and healthy in body as he calls us into the unity of charity,
let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

For the Bishops of Australia and all the members of the Plenary Council as they gather together in this Second Assembly, that they will be open to the Holy Spirit, and read carefully the signs of the times,

let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

For the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people of Australia, that they will respond well to the theme of this day, Get up. Stand up. Show up, and work for their environmental, cultural, religious, and human rights with the rest of the nation,

Let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

For all people in Australia, that we will embrace the Uluru Statement from the Heart, so that a First Nations Voice is enshrined in our Australian Constitution, strengthening a fair and truthful relationship between us all,

let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

For the peace of Jerusalem, that from the place of our salvation, peace will flow to every land and city and home, extinguish war and violence, greed and corruption, and nourish faith which will sustain hope and make fruitful love in all people,

let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

For the departed, that peace and mercy will be theirs in the kingdom of God, remembering our First Nation peoples, those who planted the Christian faith in this land, and those who have died alone or in fear,

let us pray to the Lord.

Grant this almighty God.

Celebrant: Eternal Father,
as we place this Plenary Council into your hands,
receive our thankful praise for this gift,
and make us worthy of the trust you place in us.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
